The road to getting on the water starts here, at the Tampa Bay Boat Show. After all, it only makes sense that one of the best places to boat in America has its own major boat show.

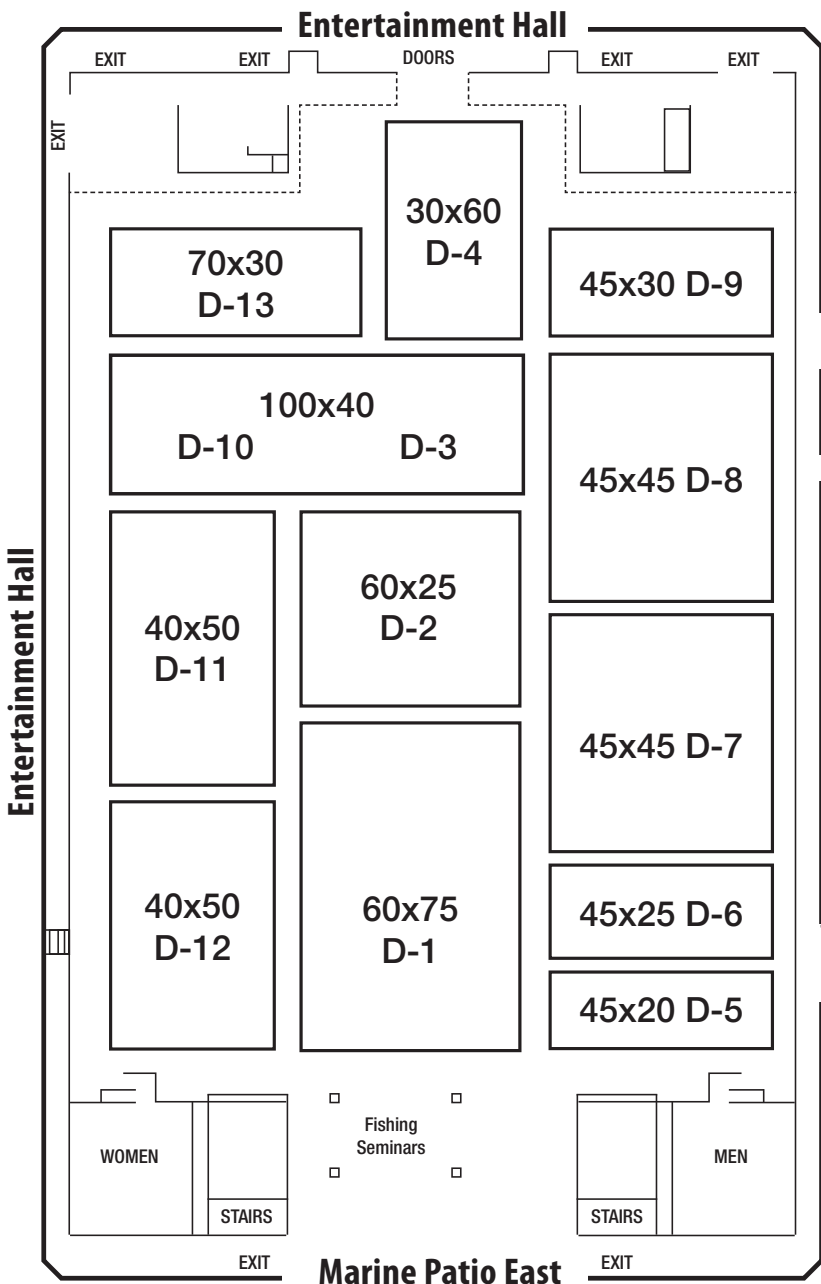

As you roam the event today, you'll find boats of all sizes, from small to large. And you'll find plenty of dealers here as well, ready to answer any question. From boats to accessories, it's all here in one place making the Tampa Bay Boat Show a great place to buy a boat.

"This is a nice sampling of the marketplace," said Dave LaBell, the promotions and events manager of the Tampa Bay Times, who expects a strong crowd throughout the weekend. "As a buyer, you can come and see many different makes and models in one location, and then decide what's the best fit for you."

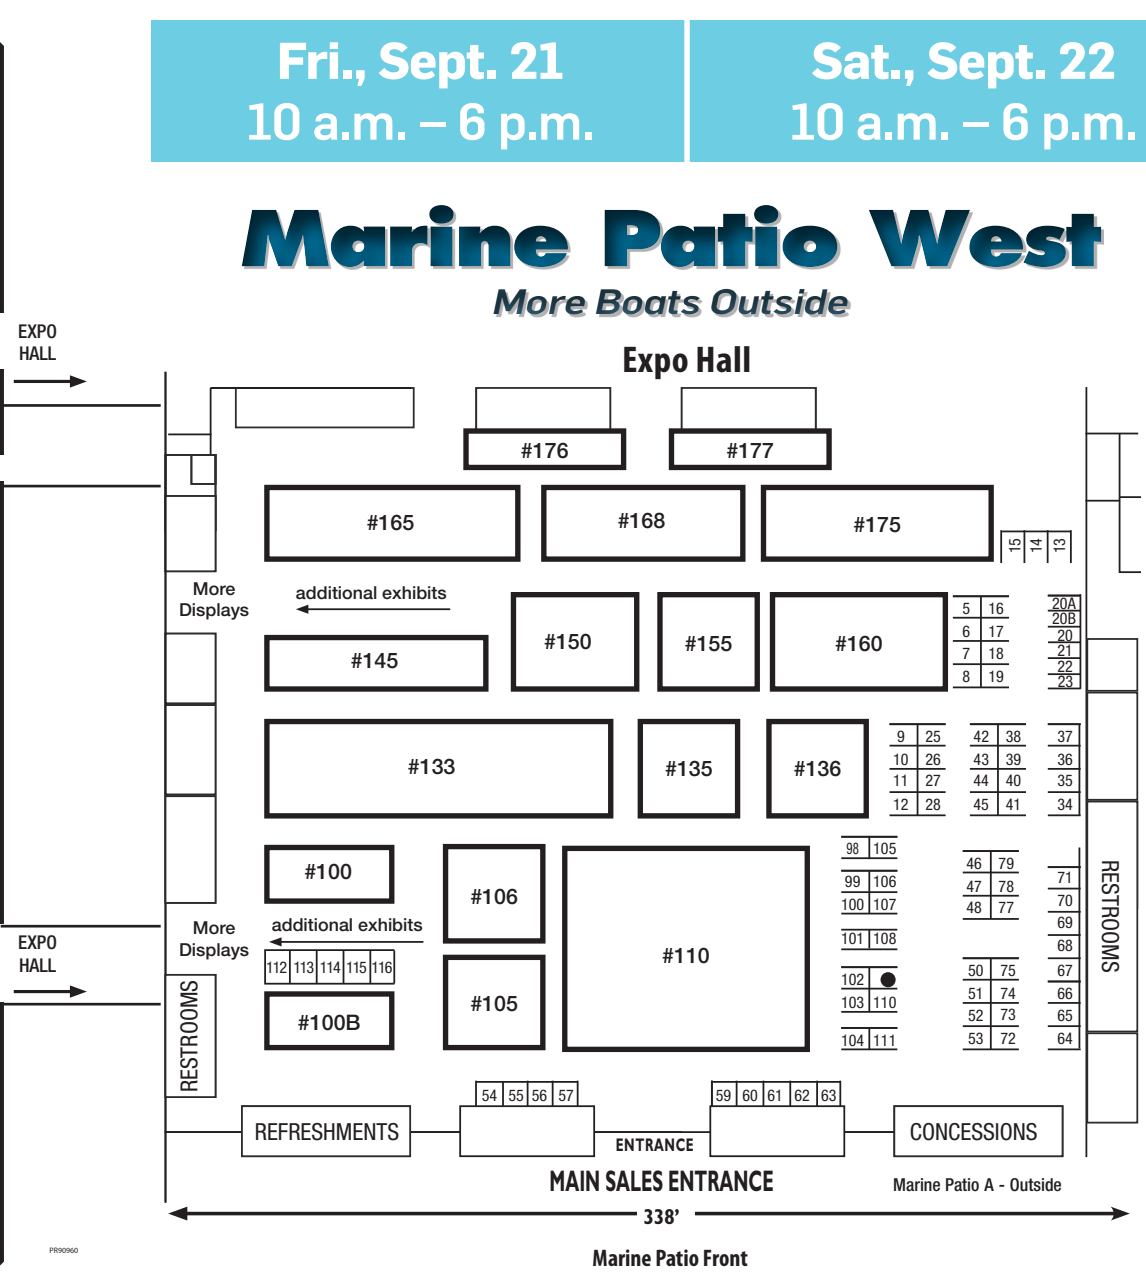

Shopping at a major sale like this can save time by eliminating travel time from dealer to dealer. It also makes comparisons much easier and convenient. Special Boat Show pricing is also available.

"At the boat show," LaBell said, "you can compare the millions of dollars of exhibits and boats on display inside and outside."

The show also features plenty of boat-related products and services. On-site financing is available which makes it easy to be on the water by the weekend.
